

Ex bello: Languages and Practices of Appeasement and Reconciliation

Fachbereich Translations-, Sprach- und Kulturwissenschaft, Johannes Gutenberg-Universität
Mainz in Germersheim,

An d. Hochschule 2, 76726 Germersheim

Neubau, 2nd Floor, Auditorium N.300

Time	Session
Friday, 27 March
16:00-16:30	Welcome coffee
16:30-17:30	Intro + Metamorphoses of Ending Wars Andreas Heinemann-Grüder. Metamorphoses of the Ukraine War. Chair:
17:45-19:00	Just peace? Véronique Zanetti. Compromise and peace Arseniy Kumankov. Beyond Just Victory Chair:
19:00-21:00	Dinner
Saturday, 28 March
9:30-10:45	Ex bello Darrel Moellendorf. Jus ex Bello and Self-Defense Against Aggression. Veronika Bock. Dealing with the Past: Possibilities and Limits of Reconciliation in Post-War Society. Chair:
10:45-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:40	Theory and Practice of reconciliation Regina Elsner. Reconciliation as an ‘English Lawn’: The process of Polish-German reconciliation after the Second World War. Jasna Dragović-Soso. Building inclusive memory after asymmetric ethnonational conflict: the case of Bosnia and Herzegovina Oleg Reut. Russia’s Unnamed and Unhonoured War: Is Reconciliation Possible over Graves? Chair:

12:40-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:45	Memories of war Nikolai Eplée. Dual Optics as a Precondition for Reconciliation: Personal Reflections from Studying the Palestinian–Israeli Conflict Aleksei Kamenskikh. The memory of past steps to reconciliation of memories as a resource to possible reconciliation in future Chair:
14:45-15:00	Coffee break
15:00-16:15	Religious organizations in ending wars Pavlo Smytsnyuk. Agents or Objects of Reconciliation? Ukrainian Churches, the Peace Settlement, and Social Legitimacy After War. Andrey Kordochkin. Is there a future for the Moscow Patriarchate? Chair:
16:15 - 17:30	Coffee and Projects market

Conference participants (in order of appearance in the program)

Prof. Dr. Andreas Heinemann-Grüder Senior Fellow at the Center for Advanced Security, Strategic and Integration Studies (CASSIS); Senior Researcher at the Bonn International Centre for Conflict Studies (BICC), Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn.

Prof. Dr. Véronique Zanetti. Professor of Political Philosophy, Faculty of History, Philosophy and Theology, Universität Bielefeld.

Dr. Arseniy Kumankov. Philipp Schwartz postdoctoral fellow, MALVA Center for the Study of War, Language, and Memory, Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz.

Prof. Dr. Darrel Moellendorf. Professor of International Political Theory and Professor of Philosophy, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute for Political Science, Goethe Universität Frankfurt.

Dr. Veronika Bock. Deputy Director, Center for Ethical Education in the Armed Forces (Zebis) and the Institute for Theology and Peace.

Prof. Dr. Regina Elsner. Faculty of Catholic Theology, Ecumenical Institute, Universität Münster.

Prof. Dr. Jasna Dragović-Soso. Visiting Professor, LSEE Research on South East Europe, Hellenic Observatory Centre for Research on Contemporary Greece & Cyprus, The London School of Economics and Political Science.

Dr. Oleg Reut. Philipp Schwartz postdoctoral fellow, MALVA Center for the Study of War, Language, and Memory, Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz.

Nikolai Epplée. Independent researcher of historical memory and reconciliation mechanisms, author of the book “An Inconvenient Past: The Memory of State Crimes in Russia and Other Countries.”

Dr. Aleksei Kamenskikh. Research Associate at the Research Training Group 2304 “Byzantium and the Euro-Mediterranean Cultures of War. Austausch, Abgrenzung und Rezeption,” Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz.

Dr. Pavlo Smytsnyuk. Visiting Scholar at New York University’s Jordan Center.

Very Rev. Dr. Andrey Kordochkin. Cleric of the Archdiocese of Belgium and Exarchate of the Netherlands and Luxembourg (Ecumenical Patriarchate); Georg-August Universität Göttingen.